Re: United States v. Elfego Boyd
13 Cr. 890 (RPP)

Dear Judge Patterson:

I am court-appointed counsel for Elfego Boyd, the defendant in the above-referenced matter. I write to request an extension of time to file the defense motions in this case. Presently, the motions are due on Monday, June 16, 2014. The reason for this request is that I am working diligently with the Government to try and resolve this matter and avoid a trial. The Government has informed me that I will receive a copy of the proposed plea agreement today. Once I have the proposed plea agreement, I need sufficient time to review it with my client and discuss it with his family. Because I am scheduled to be on trial in Albany part of next week, I am requesting a 10-day extension of time to file defendant's motions in the event that this matter is not resolved with a guilty plea.

In the event that the Court grants this request, the motion schedule would be modified as follows:

Defense motions due	June 26, 2014
Government opposition due	July 10, 2014
Defense reply due	July 17, 2014
Oral argument	July 22, 2014 or another date convenient for the Court
Trial date	September 3, 2014

I have consulted with the Government and it has no objection to this request. In addition, I spoke with John. F. Kaley, counsel for co-defendant Norman Darby, who joins in this request on behalf of his client.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Very truly yours,

15/

Roland R. Acevedo
